“ This is so sad, I was so sorry to hear this. Donna was married to my cousin Randy, he loved her so much as our whole family did. I can see them two like it was yesterday, no matter what was going on they always had time for one another and was always like two teenagers. I remember sitting and watching Donna do her make-up and not only thinking it but telling her "Donna your gonna poke your eye out if you keep doing your eyeliner like that" it was a funny story we shared together, she never held her eye lid open so always just close her eye and ran the liner across several times. I don't know just a memory I have and think about every time I think of her. I love you Donna, rest easy, you deserve the rest! Dusty I don't know if you remember me or not, but I'm Pammy Jo, please know your on my thoughts and prayers and sending them your way, your mom was great person and will always be family to me!
