“ All I have are fond memories of Albert Gray. Nothing negative can I find in my memory bank. Without him and some of his brothers, a little girl would have missed out on a lot of hugs through life when she needed it most. Rest in peace, Uncle, you're going to be sorely missed. I cherish my memories of you. Love always, Diana

“ Ann and Family:
My thoughts and prayers are with you. Albert was such a great person, he always had a positive outlook on everything. His legacy will live on through his children for generations to come, as they pass on his moral standards, kindness and wisdom. With love always, Lynn (Bradley) Lowry
