“ Mark, it wasn't but just about a couple weeks ago that we seen each other after many, many years. I'm so glad that I got to share those very precious moments with you and am so glad you left this world knowing that I loved you!! I wouldn't take anything in the world for those hugs and tears we shared together. You will certainly be missed by so many friends and your family!! Precious memories of you will forever remain in my heart. My many prayers are with all of your family!!

“ Mark was always the sweetest to me, he would see me out and say, "what u say cuz?" When my dad passed, I went to his house and we talked for hours, Mark always was one for conversation! He always told me he loved me, saying to let him know if I ever needed anything, he loved his children and was so proud of them. I pray God gives you strength, Aunt Bonnie, and surrounds his family with peace and love at this time. I am truly sorry for your loss. Much love. ”

“ Dear My Aunt Bonnie, you was always a great Mother, not only to your boys, but she show love to everyone including me! Mark and Shannon are more like brother's than cousin's. My heart is broken for you and our family. I love Marky so much. May the Lord blessed you and may Marky Rest in Peace and no more sadness or pain. Love always, Joyce Brewer Robinson
