“ I remember Leon being a constant presence in my life, from childhood on. I got older and went away then came back home to meet my now best friend, Boo. We were hanging out on Hardwicks Creek one day when a blue truck With a load of wood pulled up. I recognized the man after I began to unload wood, when he came and hugged me and we were reintroduced and have been friends ever since that day. My heart is heavy with loss of a good friend.
