“ Bertha loved all her family, and love spending time with them. Her children were my best friends growing up and my cousins too. I loved spending time with them. She was a hard worker and loved Parkmoor Chicken.

Bertha loved God and attended church until she was unable to leave her home. Now she is at rest and those who believe the truth that God has given us in his word shall see her when the son of God, Christ Jesus will come back to gather His believers together.
