“ I went to see Aunt Beulah everytime I visited the family cemetary. She greeted me with that wonderful smile. Come on in sit down, how have you been, she would say. she would sit sideways on the sofa, elbow on her knee and that finger on her lower jaw kinda pushing up that lip smiling all the time. As a child we spent alot of time at her house. She was a wonderful cook. I love you Aunt Beulah, tell Uncle Alby and Mom we think of them often. Rest in peace sweetheart.

“ To my family and friends of Aunt Beulah. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Last I saw Aunt Beulah was when I was a little girl...which was many years ago but I remember being there. Aunt Beulah, you are with the family again and I am so sure they are there with open arms and boy will they be able to tell you stories. Wilma Dean and Kendra my heart goes out to you as losing a mother is so hard. When they are sick and we take care of them we see the smile and the caring in their eyes. We know they are leaving to a better world and it is so hard on us because we can not say hi and watch the smile in their face when they see us. My heart breaks just thinking of this but I do know she is in God's hand now with a little help from the family to greet her. God Bless all and my sincere and great love to you all.
