“ I remember when Susie rode the school bus in Slade. She was a quiet, beautiful person. My siblings and I grew up with her and her siblings. We lived a few houses up the road from their grandma. I haven't seen her in many years, but I have fond memories of her. I know she joined the Army, after she got out of school.

Ah, Susie! My dear and cherished niece, whom I loved and had so many good times with! She was a devoted Christian - loving wife, Mom and Grandma. All of us in the family are in shock and will have a long time of mourning. But we can be thankful for all the beautiful and fun memories. We love you dearly, Susie.
