“ Carolyn, Danny, and Tammy have always been precious to me. Carolyn loved and lived for her family fiercely. She never ceased to have a smile, a hug, or a word of encouragement for anyone who needed it. We all were blessed to bask in Christ's light that showed brightly in Carolyn in her words and actions.

“ Cheryl King I don't know how long I have known Carolyn but I do know that she has always had a smile every time I ever ran into her, she was always up even when she was fighting cancer. She was a joy to be around . Inside and out she was a beautiful person. My brother nicknamed her Sweet Pea and we laughed about that, she was just a great person to be around

“ I first met Carol when the seventh grades from Bowen and Clay City started the eighth grade in Stanton. Guess we felt grown up to be going to the high school. Carol and I became friends right away. It broke my heart when she had to quit school but we both grew up to marry friends. We lost touch for awhile but once James and I settled down and decided to serve the Lord our friendships rekindled. We always spent a few hours with Carol and Danny every time we were in Stanton and Danny was kind enough to speak at James funeral. His stories about their growing up together had everyone laughing. I it won't be the same being in Ky without her there. Im trying not to be sad cause I know how much Carol loved the Lord. I know I will meet her in Heaven one day. I will never forget here.
