“ Cecil will be missed by everyone but now he will finally get to see his mother again in heaven. When he first had his cancer he stayed with Ricky and i several nights and he would talk about how much he missed his mother and how good of woman she was. God blessed Cecil even during his death, he died the easy with no pain on the end, i just hope that God when my life is over he is watching over me in the same way because God sure took him in a way that Cecil didn't have to suffer. We are going to miss seeing Cecil but at least now your cancer free.

“ I worked at the Natural Bridge Shell for 9 and a half years. Cecil always made his rounds every day. He walked every where he went and he would always sit at the table and talk to me awhile. Sometimes, I would help him use the atm. I moved away to Jackson and I had not seen him in awhile but I always wondered how he was doing. Now I know. He will be sadly missed but I will never forget him. Love and prayers for the family.

“ When I worked at Shell, he came in there every morning for a cup of coffee. He brought me food he had cooked sometimes also. He was a very kind and at times comical. He spent his days walking between his house, Shell, Subway, Go Time, and Cynthia's. Everyone at Slade knew who he was and he watched out for everybody. One time I had my car running and was on break and he beat on my window cause he thought I was sleep and fumes make hurt me and gave me a breakfast cookie.

Cecil was a wonderful friend to our family for 50 plus years. He was a caring and kind person. He had many, many friends. He fought a long, hard battle with 4 types of cancer. An aneurysm is what took his life.We will miss you a lot Cecil.We will miss your jokes, your laughter, and your daily visits when you were able to get out.We know you are at rest now. James, Cynthia , Daniel, and Allisha
