“ I have so many great memories of Granny Chelsie. From helping her snapping beans on the front porch to eating grapes with her off of the vine in the back yard. But what I will always remember most is her hugs. I never have been and am still not a big hugger but you could just feel the love in her hugs. I will miss her dearly.

“ I will always cherish the memories I have of my Granny Chelsie. I loved to spend the night with her....she would let me drink coffee and it always made me feel so special as a child. She would take my sister and brothers to Winchester to eat at Jerry's and stop at Roses department store and each got to get a treasure. I usually got a record. I also loved to stay at her house when i was sick. She always took the best care of me...even if she made me take a yucky aspirin mushed up in a spoon. I also remember sneaking into her spare bedroom and playing with her old dolls. She was such a special person and I will never forget her or the love she always had for me. She will be greatly missed.

“ I loved just sitting in a room with Aunt Chelsie and my mom, listening to them tell stories. She sure could make me laugh. I love that she and Mom look so much alike, and that Uncle Pete and Dad look so much alike. To be in the room with all of them together made me feel like I'd crossed into another dimension where I had 2 sets of just slightly different parents. Aunt Chelsie was a sweet, kind, loving, and Godly women and will be missed by everyone in the entire family. Rest easy, Aunt Chelsie.

“ My favorite memory was our vacations to Kentucky. We would pull in to the drive and have the biggest smiles and hugs waiting for us. You wouldn't dare think of eating anywhere besides her house. We would all pile in to eat...there was always leftovers , no matter how many people were there. Their home always felt like my home...love everywhere. RIP Aunt Chelsie. Love you.

“ My favorite memory I Saturday nights when she used to babysit us. We made the weekly trip to the big town of winchester to eat at Jerry's then buy groceries at Winn-Dixie then home to pile on the couch a day ear apples she would slice for us while we watched Hee-Haw. Great memories
