

Clota Marilyn Rogers

October 15, 1927 - February 27, 2025

Clota M. Rogers, 97, of Stanton, passed away Thursday, February 27, 2025 at the Central Baptist Hospital, Lexington. She was born October 15, 1927 in Powell County to the late W.I. & Beatrice Brandenburg Rogers. Clota, affectionately called "Clotie", had a strong work ethic that was evident even after her many years of working and retiring from Curlee Clothing Company and then as a cook for the Powell County Board of Education. Clota was a woman who fiercely loved and was dedicated to her Lord, family, church family, and friends. She was known for being very active in church and was there "anytime the doors were open." If she wasn't at church, you would not find her being idle at home. She would be reading her Bible, calling to check on family and friends, cleaning her immaculate home, making a quilt, or drying apples for her famous fried pies that were her signature dish for every church or family function. On many summer and fall days, you'd find her maintaining an expansive garden, breaking beans on the back porch, weeding her flower beds, or canning the fruits of her hard labor. Clota will be fondly remembered for loving deeply, praying faithfully and fervently for the people she loved, and being comically feisty with her thoughts and passions.

“ So much childhood wrapped up in this family. I know she would never dance but I'd say she is skipping down streets of gold with Ceibert and Darren. Love to all and what a testimony to leave behind. Darlene

“ I loved Clota and when both my Mamaws passed, she kinda stepped in as a backup Grandma. She loved me and prayed for me in the darkest times in my life and she never gave up hope. I loved her for this and many other reasons. So each church service when id see her and she would give me the best hug, id always make it a point to brag on her beautiful dress that she was wearing. She'd always look down and way " oh this ol thing, I've had this thing for years". Well now, Mrs. Clota is no doubt wearing a brand new robe of white and I look so forward to seeing her in it one of these days so I can tell her how much I love it and get one of her warm, embracing hugs. Rest Easy pretty girl. Til we meet again. Make sure you tell my Mamaws that you took care of me for them. I'll miss y'all always.

“ I'll always remember visits with mamaw and papaw to see her and Uncle Oscar as a kid. They'd always let me work in the garden with her, and she'd always slip me extra pizza on my lunch tray in elementary school. They'd always world lost an Angel on earth, that's now an Angel in heaven with many crowns.
