“ I have so many memories that keep coming to me but some of my favorites is he love canning green beans and pickles , she loved going papaya hunting we called them paw paws . He loved Looking for night crawler because our yard was full of them. And he made the best fudge anyone had ever tasted. He loved golfing with his good friends Paul & Harry. He would always give me the road runner sticker that he would get when he put new muffler on the car. I loved when he get new mufflers. He chased me around the kitchen one day saying he was going to tell me about the birds and the bees. I ran forever to get away from embarrassment and when I finally stopped he whispers in my ear and said “ the birds go tweet tweet and the Bees go bbzzz” He was a funny man too ❤️ I will miss him forever and my heart will never be complete and healed, but God needed him for that mansion in the sky.

“ I'm so not ready for you to go, a big peace of my heart was taken away when you left us to be in heaven with your granddaughter Gracie, she will absolutely love you, your a perfect angel now looking down on your family. Your dancing in the sky with your family members. I will miss you so much, but I know now that your in no more pain, it was so hard seeing you in pain and not being able to do anything about it, God has taken your pain now because he knew you'd be a perfect angel, I will always be thinking about you and will miss you dearly, We love you dad, we will definitely take care of mom just like you told us to do, you was an amazing person on earth, and I'm definitely sure that your amazing in heaven. “ A Poem For Daddy

*Nothing could prepare us.
For what you've had to do.
You have gone to be with Jesus,
Our time, is up, with you.*

*We prayed so hard to keep you.
But wouldn't change a thing.
We agree with God to take you,
And wrap you beneath his wing.*

*Nothing could prepare us,
As we lay you down to rest.
Your life with us was precious.
But God,...He only takes the best.*

*So please dad don't you worry.
As we will be okay.
We have faith in knowing,
We'll be together again some day.*

“ My sweet sweet daddy. Words can't express the sadness we are all feeling right now. I wish I could hug you one last time and tell you how much I love you. There weren't a man on this earth that meant as much to us as you did. You were our everything. I will always cherish the memories we have. The random car rides just to get an ice cream cone, the trips to Ohio that you loved so much, the fishing trips. You always were adventurous. I don't know how we will go on without you, We are all trying to so hard to be strong because that is what you would want us to do. You never wanted us to worry about a thing. I thank you for making me into the person I am today which is humble and kind JUST like YOU. We all love and miss you so much daddy. Please watch over us.
Love, Ashley ❤️

“ My dad was a very well known, loved man. He worked hard all of his life to make sure we had everything we needed and a lot of what we wanted growing up. He absolutely loved his family more than anything. He took pride in each and every one of us. He has always provided us with good advise. He wanted us to succeed in anything we did and was there with a firm hand when we did wrong. He was our rock and our glue. He was the man that made us into the adults that we are today. He was a loving husband of 51 years, a loving father for 47 years. He loved taking care of us and has never turned his back on any of us. He was the greatest grandpa to all of his grand babies. They were all wrapped around his little finger. I've never met a more loving man. He will be missed by so many and will never be forgotten. If you knew him, you were a lucky person. RIP Daddy until we meet again.
