“ Darlene was like a sister to me. We both liked to read and got in trouble one summer for reading all day and not cleaning the house for mom who was taking college classes. Mom enjoyed having Darlene when she stayed with her. She was funny and would tell you how it was. She will be missed greatly by our family. I love you Darlene and heaven is getting an angel with you. Love and prayers from Charlotte

“Darlene was my mothers caregiver for over a year. Mom (Margaret) and I absolutely adored her! She was kind of shy when she first came to care for mom, but once she got to know us, she was a blast! She began teasing mom and joking back and forth. Mom got right into the banter with Darlene. I began calling them “the Bickersons” because they were play-arguing all the time. When one of mom’s other caregivers began a battle with cancer, Darlene sent some of her money to the other caregiver. She had a huge, smiling, loving and giving heart. When we learned of her death we began to mourn the loss of this specific light in our lives. God rest her good, good soul. In Christ’s Name, Amen.
