“ I will forever regret not getting to know you better. If only I had given you my number. I am so glad that my gran daughter picked you that flower on her way home the last day of School for Christmas break. And how she asked you if she could hug you and you both hugged. How she loved that little Cactus you had outside. I regret not being a nosey Neighbor I will forever miss seeing you walk your baby outside. All of us will over here, but Dakota will especially. Its hard to explain to a five year old as she looked out the Window asking what happen to the sweet old lady. My heart goes out to your family.
