“ I would like to pass along my sincerest condolences to the family of Dixie Everman. I did not know Ms. Everman but I met her the night of the fire when I helped pull her and her son away from the building. She was worried about her son's safety and told me to leave her and get him to safety. I told her I wouldn't leave her and with the help of other officers and firefighters, we got her and her son to a waiting ambulance. I wish more could have been done to help Ms. Everman, but I want the family to know that all of the first responders that night did all they could to save everyone there.

I applaud Ms. Everman's strength and selflessness. Even in the face of adversity, her concern was for others. She was a fighter and this tragedy has touched us all, most especially, to her family and the family of the others who did not make it that night. I know my words may not mean much, but I want the Everman family to know, that I am thinking of you at this time and my heart truly aches for your loss. May God bless each of you and give you peace.

With Respect,
