“ I met Donnie 3 years ago and became fast friends. From day one, he was the most respectful, honest and helpful people I've ever known. A big heart, a good soul and strong hands, he would always be there for anything my family needed. I know he was like this for anyone he called friend. I've been blessed to meet his family and the love and commitment they have for each other shines through, especially in times like this. Donnie, I will miss our time spent drinking through a pot of coffee together and "Solving all the problems of the world". I will miss it very much. Godspeed my friend.
