

Doris W. "Moe" Knox

September 29, 1939 - November 21, 2025

Doris W. "Moe" Knox, 86, widow of R.D. Knox, Harrodsburg, KY, died Friday, November 21, 2025, at her home. Born September 29, 1939, in Fayette County, she was the daughter of the late William O. "Buck" and Ailene (Bussell) Whalen. Doris retired as a World Trade Representative for IBM, she was a member of the Hebron Independent Missionary Baptist Church in Salvisa. She was cheerleader for Athens High School and was an avid UK Basketball fan. Doris was also the Longaberger Basket Lady.

Survivors include: one son, Gary Dixon (Wanda) of Harrodsburg, KY; one sister, Jo Evans of Harrodsburg, KY; two grandchildren, Sarah Elam (Callee) and Matt Dixon (Olivia); three great-grandchildren, Avery Dixon, Zhane Patrick Elam and William Jessie Lee Elam. She was preceded in death by a sister; Bobbie Jean "Sissy" Lindsey and a brother; William O. "Wimpy" Whalen.

Visitation will be 5 - 8 PM Monday; December 1, 2025, at Ransdell Funeral Chapel, Harrodsburg, KY. Funeral services will be conducted 11 am Tuesday; December 2 by George Dye and Dallas Daniels at the Hebron Independent Missionary Baptist Church in Salvisa, KY. Graveside services will be 1pm Wednesday, December 3, 2025, in Knox-Tipton Cemetery, Stanton, KY.

Pallbearers: Matt Dixon, Colby Warren, Doug Lawson, Ernie Newton, Al Crowell, & Donnie Cox. Honorary: Dallas Daniels, Dewayne May, Marshall Thompson, Jack Lindsey, Chris Knox, Daniel Goodpaster, Leon Leonard, Steve Taylor, Homer Bussell, Joe Denny, and Men of Hebron Sunday School Class. Memorials are suggested to: Heritage Hospice or The Alzheimers

Association.

Previous Events

Graveside

DEC 3. 1:00 PM (ET)

Knox-Tipton Cemetery
Gritter Ridge Road
Stanton, KY 40380

Tribute Wall

LL

“ Doris, Charlotte Worthington and I worked together for years, sharing an office. We were the best of friends. Doris was kind, funny and a faithful friend. It saddens me to see that's she's gone. ”

Leon Leonard - December 01, 2025 at 08:39 PM

TO

“ Tony lit a candle in memory of Doris W. "Moe" Knox ”

tony - November 30, 2025 at 09:56 AM