

Dorothy Jewel Miller

November 8, 1930 - January 29, 2026

Dorothy Jewel Miller, 95, of Clay City, Kentucky, passed away at home surrounded by her family on January 29, 2026. Born on November 8, 1930, in Hazard, Kentucky, she was the daughter of the late Chester and Lenora Pollard. Dorothy was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Dewey Sigel Miller; four sons, Dewey Sigel Miller Jr., Chester Wallace Miller, David Miller, and Jeffery Lee Miller; and one daughter, Lenora Pearl Miller. She is survived by four daughters, Loinilli Sue Pasley (Alec), Pamela Lovette Poe (Ronnie), Loretta Ruth Poe (Rick), and Marjorie Lynn Burge (Jasper); and one son, Carl Elvin Miller (Melinda). She also leaves behind nineteen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren. A member of the Friendship Baptist Church, Dorothy will be remembered for making handmade crochet doilies and homemade candies and gingerbread that she proudly gave to family and friends. She also kept the family warm by making homemade quilts that were cherished by everyone. We will always imagine hearing her say "I love you"; which were the last words to her family. We couldn't have asked for a better Mom or Nanny who loved unconditionally and was the glue that held us all together. We will miss her everyday. Dorothy's memory will live on in the hearts of all who love. Services Wednesday, February 4, 11:00AM Wells Funeral Home by Bro. Terry Miller. Visitation Tuesday 6-8pm at the funeral home. Burial in Miller-Combs Cemetery with David Miller, Shannon Pasley, Chad Poe, Ricky Crowe, Dustin Baker, Isaiah Miller, Willie Miller, and Luke Pasley serving as pallbearers. Special honorary pallbearer, Greg Crowe, and honorary pallbearers serving Donovan Poe, Jeremiah Creech, Daniel Poe, Dylan Crowe, Conner Creech, Ben Wright, Carter Poe, Drew Miller, Tucker Baker, Noah Cass, Josiah Cass, Corbin Russell, and Easton Miller.

“ I will always remember her being a cook at Clay City Elementary school. She enjoyed the smiles on all the kids faces. She made our day better, as I'm sure us kids did to her as well. I still have a wooden plaque that Sidgel, and her made for my family (saying the Smith family) and on the back is engraved: made by Sidgel & Jewell Miller. Now they are together again. I can only imagine the smiles on there faces. Prayers, and so sorry to her fa

“ She taught me how to make easy peanut butter rolls. I remember walking to her house on Halloween for her homemade popcorn balls. She was such a beautiful person in every way possible. I called her Nanny because she was the only one I ever knew and felt like a grandparent after my mom's mother passed. Her and Dewey or to me pappaw were so close with my parents. Dewey was Dad's best friend and she was moms. I have videos of natural bridge trips we would take together and other places. She will be forever missed but always loved. I remember one day been there and her and papaw had told the grandbabies to stay out of apple tree because electric line was in it. N u should have heard her and papaw when they ran in acting like one of them were electrocuted. Boy did they get in trouble. Lol
She was just an amazing person and special to me and my family in so many ways. Love u Nanny , go run on those golden streets.
Best cook ever!!!
