“ Prayers go out to the family who will miss this wonderful woman. As a prior neighbor and friend she was so upbeat each time we interacted. Elouise always had a smile on her face. Sorry for your loss; she will be missed.

PS

Elouise is my cousin, our sweet mothers were sisters. We played together when our mothers would visit and when the family would have reunion picnics at Kennon Cemetery and Natural Bridge Park. Elouise was always the bravest in our childhood escapades. If ever there was anyone in my youth that had an extra dose of spunk , it was Elouise. I was just a few days ago trying to figure out how to contact her sense the pandemic seemingly was fading, only to get the message that she had passed. I pray for child and grandchildren to find comfort somehow and know that the last time I talked to her she was running over with the joy she had in those grandchildren. Even though we didn't get to spend much time together as adults, I cherish the childhood memories. So very sincerely, Phyllis Lee Scalzo
