“ Jerry will be remembered for his giving kindness and his strong work ethic. If he was your friend, there was no limit to his generosity and loyalty. Jerry's love for Lhasa Apso's - especially his beloved "Kaba" that he was totally devoted to was easy to appreciate and become attached to also. Barry and I grew to love his dog, Kaba, as well as his wife, Robin who was very good for Jerry. I was so happy when Jerry became involved with the Trucker's Ministry for all the drivers out there on the road, able to stop in for a service to hear God's word. I saw Jerry's spiritual strengthen from assisting with these weekly services grow. I was moved by the devotion that Jerry expressed from working for God and helping others. I cannot think of a better way to leave this world than to go to sleep and peacefully wake up on the other side. My dear friend - May God Richly bless you. Nancy Day Jackson
