“ I am so sorry for your loss! Gladys and the Hall family are special to my family! We shared lots of good memories as I was growing up! Dad used to take me with him to help Uncle Millard set his tobacco and chop corn! We shared a lot of Sunday meals together and we went to Sunday Worship at the old Tin Town church! I was very young but I still have vague memories. Dad was the oldest boy in Rob Reed family and Aunt Mary always took care of daddy! I love you guys and our family has had a great loss, my love and prayers for all in the days ahead!
