“ We grew up with Jody, in Slade, 3 houses from each other. He would hang out with some of my siblings. I remember him , from a very young age. He was a good person and tried to help a lot of people, over the years. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.

“ He was my poppa. The earliest memory I have was when I was 6 years old. My sister, our cousin Jessica Morrison, and I caught him sleeping on the couch with my mom; so we decided to tie his shoe strings together and throw ice at him, hoping he would get up and trip. Lol. But he got up laughing saying, you cant trick me. Lord how I miss him so much! My heart is so crushed! I'm just glad he knew how much I love him. I miss you poppa, and will love you even until I take my last breath.... Love your baby girl.
