

Glenda Gail Strange

April 28, 1940 - July 17, 2024

Glenda Gail Strange, 84, widow of Willie Strange, passed away Wednesday, July 17, 2024 at Saint Joseph Mt. Sterling. She was born April 28, 1940 in Powell County to the late Woodford and Verna Mitchell Morton. Survivors include, sons, Ronnie Strange, Kenny Strange, and Terry Strange; Sister, Sue Everhart; and a host of grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, son, Mike Strange, daughter, Sheila Strange; and brothers, Mendal Morton, Harry Morton, and Earl Ray Morton; sisters, Juanita Crabtree and Venice Crowe. Glenda wore many hats throughout her lifetime, raising her five children mostly as a single mom. She worked very hard and very diligently to feed her family and her sole purpose was to keep her children together as a family. Glenda loved life and she lived it to the fullest.

She loved to joke, cut up, and have a big laugh. She never missed the opportunity to sit down to a good meal. Glenda had a hard life and her struggles were many but the foremost important thing in her life was she accepted the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ into her heart. Services Monday, July 22, 3:00PM Wells Funeral Home. Visitation Sunday 6-9pm at the funeral home. Burial in Faulkner Cemetery with Matthew Strange, David Morton, Gary Morton, Bill Crabtree, Barry Crabtree, and Michael Morton serving as pallbearers.
