“ Greg was a great Christian man whom I had gotten to know well and worked with for several years at Dessie Scott. He and Lissie devoted many years of not only being a great father and mother but also father and mother figures to so many Dessie Scott Children. Greg and Lissie taught me a lot about patients and happiness. You will be greatly missed my friend by many that you have touched. You and Lissie have inspired me to be the best Christian, father, and husband I can be.

“ The last note that I wrote for Greg hadn't been mailed yet so I'll share it here. Since the day he and Lissie brought Joey home after his birth, I have watched Greg's life closely. Not just me, but dozens of other men have been inspired by the example Greg showed us about how to be a better man. He was the gold standard for how to be a husband, father, and papaw. I pray that every guy who knew him aspires to be the man that Greg was. Not goodbye my beloved brother, because I'll see you at the great reunion.
