“ I remember when Uncle Henry and Aunt Becky with Lonnie would come down to Florida at Christmas time. Mom loved having Uncle Henry celebrated with her before she passed. But we would go swimming in December. And Uncle Henry introduced me to ale 8. Very good. Y'all will be truly missed.

“ I always thought of him as my Uncle. We grew up calling him Uncle Henry and Aunt Becky. He looked so much like my dad. We enjoyed him coming to our house in Cedarville. My husband and family didn't have a lot of time to get to know him well but they really liked him. I will miss him terribly.

Henry is going to miss by me because he always asked about my son Jacob Lee Sparks because he used to drive his school bus every day but when he was sick or had to do something for his wife that day. My son Loved him but when he wasn't on the school bus my son would know that he was not on there to talk to him and play and cutting up with him

“ My Uncle Henry was a great man! My best memories of him is are him being so playful with us kids growing up and him singing or whistling a tune. He loved all of us dearly. ❤️
