“ I met Henry for the first time while he spoke at my Moms funeral and then again at some more members of our family's funerals. I You could see that Henry had great faith in God. I even spoke with him about my son asking him questions as I feel my son might be a preacher one day. He definitely. left his impressions on this world .Thank you Henry .

Henry treated me just like one of his Kids. He always joked around with me and told everybody I was his "fav-a-rite" daughter in law. Then he would laugh and say I was his only daughter in law. He was the best Father In Law in the whole world. He was the most Honest, kind, and generous person I knew. RIP Henry Johnson! You will be missed!

Angie, he visited my Dad often at the nursing home. He stopped by Friday and we had the best talk. He talked about his family and how much he loved them, and of course, how much he loved the Lord.

“ Henry always had a way of making me feel better when I was down or in pain. Just the smile on his face could lift me up into a great mood. He would tell the Kroger cashiers, she's my worst neighbor!! Then the last time I was there he told Ed and I not to be acting up at the Furnace. lol. Such a kidder. On another occasion He seen I was on a cane where I had my knee replaced and even though I told him I thought I could manage, he wouldn't have it. He took my groceries and unloaded them for me. Gonna miss him so bad.
