“ It's been so hard without you here. I miss all the conversations we used to have and just having you to talk to when I had no one else. No one could ever replace you. You meant so much to everyone. You used to tell me that I would be the right guy someday and to be patient with things in life. You'd always remind me that I was beautiful no matter what. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. You will always be in my heart. I love and miss you so much.

“ I will miss Chad so much. We met many years ago at the Stanton Fun Center, when I was in 7th grade, and had developed a big crush on him. We were good friends for most of my life. Thanks to the social media, we were able to re-connect, and were trying to plan to meet somewhere and catch up on each others' lives. That day never came, and he was unexpectedly called home. The lesson to be learned is to always make time for the people you care for, as we never know which day will be our last, and those opportunities will be missed. We are not guaranteed another day in this life. I only hope we get to meet again someday. I miss his humor and his friendship already. We, his friends and family, are better people just to have had the pleasure of knowing the man he was. Prayers to the friends and family of Jim Chadwick; my heart goes out to each of you.

“ How I will miss you James (Jimmy)! You made me laugh! My heart goes out to everyone who knew James and who will feel his loss. Especially, his parents and Cameron. I know how hard it is to lose a child and for a child to lose a parent. Love is one thing we all can send to his family. James never hesitated to let one know that he cared. I only knew him for a couple of years but he's made a mark on my life that will last forever. I can't help but know he'd understand when our tears fall, for that's what you do when you care in return. For a time hearts will be sad, but thank God for memories, for through them we will always remember James and be glad.

“ I was so glad to see Jimmy and his family recently in Stanton. It was good to hear him joking as he always did. It brought back so many memories of good times we had in our teenage years. Ozenia was like a second mother to all of us giving good advice. Jimmy will be deeply missed. Your in my thoughts and prayers.

“ May God bless your family & give you comfort during this difficult time of your terrible loss. James was a little younger than I am but we have always been friends. He was a very special person to me even though we did not see each other all that much during the past few years. Every time we did see each other he always came to me with that special big smile & we would laugh & chat for a long time just "catching up" with everything that had been going on in each others lives. I will truly miss those special times together & your family will be in my heart & in my prayers. I know you are suffering through a terrible loss. I want you to know he (& his family) was loved by many & we all will truly miss him.
