“ I didn't know James, but am good friends with his mother Bonnie and her husband Henry. My deepest condolences go out to Bonnie, and to all the family members that are dealing with such a devastating loss.

(poem "Immortality" by Clare Harner, often called 'The Hopi Prayer')

Immortality

*Do not stand by my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am the thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints in snow*

*I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle, autumn rain.
As you awake with morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush*

*Of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand by my grave, and cry
I am not there, I did not die.*

Clare Harner, The Gypsy, December 1934

“ Everyday he came to mine and Troy Jr Smith's house, he would sit with Troy and listen to anything he wanted to talk about, and it didn't matter how long Troy wanted to talk. Jamie would listen. They grew up together, they ran the streets together. Prayers for Doris and all the Rice family as you go through this pain of losing him. May God send you peace in this time of need. Sending lots of love.
