“ A very good friend has passed, and will be missed by all that knew him. I can remember when we would talk on the radio or on the phone for hours & hours sleepless nights, enjoying every minute with our friends. I always was amazed how he would accept all the challenges that he coped with daily & they were many but he didn't let that hold him back he would find a way to achieve them. I remember the day he got his friend & everyday partner Jack his dog I could see from that day that this friendship between these two was going to be a good one. Yes Peanut Snowden u will be missed by many. He liked people & friends stopping by to chat & say hello it was his way to the outside which he enjoyed. He was somewhat confined, but didn't seem too bad, oh yes he would fuss a little but that would pass. Yes Peanut Snowden u will be missed. And as all of us that have used radio's as a form of communications we salute you with A Last Call for Peanut Snowden. Nothing heard. I'm back quiet.
