“ My condolences to this fine lady’s family upon her passing. Janice & I were co-workers at CCE for many years. She was such a joy to be around....always carried that meek & humble spirit, & that little smile on her face. It always made me happy to run upon her out somewhere (she was easily spotted with her pretty grey hair!), as she would always stop & have conversation with me. 💕💕🌸

“ I remember as a kid Aunt Jan coming to visit us in Florida and having me go to church with her. And in the summers, spending nights at her house with my cousin Ashley. Aunt Jan would get so irritated with us, but always welcomed us back for another sleepover! I will miss the birthday cards in the mail from her, you could always count on one. Rest In Peace Aunt Janice.
