“ Janie, you were like a second mother to me for a long time. You not only opened your heart to me, but also your home, both were an incredible honor. Although, I had a severely hard head then, I still learned a lot from you. You were a pillar of strength and independence, with the most generous, unfailing love that I've yet to experience. Thank you for giving me the motherly love that I had been yearning for years. I will remember it and you always

“ I've know Janie all my life. It breaks my heart to learn of her passing. She was a sweet, kind and gentle soul. Janie and Eva Mae were both my aunts by choice since I was a small child. Loosing them both this close together and this soon, is just to much for one heart to bare... I love you Janie!! I pray you RIP in the house of the Lord always for all of eternity, with no more sadness, pain or heartache... Your earthly body may be gone, but your sweet soul has been set free..... Now you shall live on in my heart and my memories forever and always..
