“ Dorothy, I'm so very sorry to hear about Jerry's passing. I very well know how you feel. Both of us now are widows with only one child living. And while that is so hard to accept & understand, we know God's eye is on the sparrow, He watches over & cares for them, as well as the lilies of the field ... & He will do the same for the both of us. He will give us the daily strength we need to carry on until our name is called! God bless you ... I will be praying for you With love...

So back in the days of Affiliated foods our work place ,we were a bunch of misfit truckers we all shared a day of digging up the ground at the golf course at a union golf scramble. I remember Cooter as we called him,he comes with borrowed clubs untied boots of course and a big smile and a hat that looked like it had just been found under the truck seat and well we all had smiles that day . I remember it was Jerry's shot he takes a wide stance tongue out he draws back like he's chopping wood and he let the swing fly and lo and behold off it went,the club head that is and the ball waited patiently on the tee. Jerry with the most simple look staring at the club were the wood head use to be and says oh my god David is going to kill me. Omg it took awhile to get the laughs out of our systems.Rip peace my brother I will see you again. I hope this memory makes you smile ❤️

“ Jerry, you were one of the nice classmates in school. I remember kindness from you at a time when I so needed a break from others that would bully me. For this I will be forever grateful. May you rest easy and fly high my sweet classmate. Prayers for the family.
