“ Jeannie I am so sorry for your loss. I just lost my husband two months ago so I know what you're going through! Doug was in the top 5 Assistant Managers I've ever had at Home Depot. He always had my back and was responsible for allowing me to become an Expeditor, a job I held for 11 years. I truly respected Doug for the way he managed people. More than that I liked and respected him as a person and the way he always spoke of his family with love. The next few months are going to be unbelievably awful. Nothing in the world can prepare you for the loss of your spouse. I've got a hole in my heart big enough to drive a semi truck through and I always will. I'll be praying for you, but turn to Jesus to help you through this. He is there for you and is crying right along with you. If you would like to talk contact me on PM through Facebook. G'l'd Bless You and Your family during this time of grief. But don't forget to remember the good times too! The good memories will help get you through. Marcia Frederick
