“ I absolutely hate to hear of her passing...she was such a great patron at the Powell County Public Library, She was super smart and very self sufficient as she could turn her hands to do almost anything in this world. Her husband worked with my mom for years at CMS and Jonnie would make jelly out of rose petals that was so good. What a sad loss for our community to lose such a wonderful Christian woman and very dear friend. My deepest sympathies for her loved ones...

“ As a city kid, I always appreciated hearing stories about her ability to spin wool (winning an event where she could spin the most yarn?), shear sheep, and more. When I met her I was struck by her kind heart. So sorry for your loss.
