“ As I sit alone in the darkness of my loss and grief I continually reach out and touch the truth that only I can imagine as i try to make sense of the most significant loss and pain of all times.I feel betrayed, confused, fearful and yes even desperate. I listen in silence to my soul and am still shocked to realize the amazing Grace of God's faithful presence but I will walk the road as he holds my hand and leads me closer to the presence of my mother no matter how difficult the pain and discomfort took over me I will know that the amazing Grace was hidden in my painful experience of loss and grief and god was with me the whole time.I love you mom all ways and forever and you are safely now in God's arms.
