

Karen Sue Wells

April 20, 1947 - November 2, 2025

Karen Sue Wells, 78, of Clay City, transitioned peacefully into the arms of her Savior on November 2, 2025. The only daughter of the late Ruth and Herbert Potts, she is preceded in death by her beloved brothers, Bradley, Steven "Al", James "Jim", and Anthony "Tony" Potts. She is survived by a multitude of strong women for whom she was their honorable matriarch. They include her daughters Kellye (Darryl) Ashley and Kristi Wells Harrison. She is also survived by her adoring granddaughters, Jerrica Ashley, and Abbigale and Alexandra Harrison. Recently she became a "Great Grand Nanny" to Arianna Hupp, her only great granddaughter. She is also survived by her nephews, her nieces, her cousins, her caregivers, granddogs, and friends. Affectionately known as "Momma", "Nanny", and "Aunt Susie", she will be deeply missed by her loving family that remain Earth side. Services Sunday, November 9, 2025, 3:00pm. Visitation Sunday 1-3pm at the funeral home. Burial to occur at Stonegate Cemetery with Darryl Ashley, John Frazier, Robert Curtis, Kent Watkins, Steve Watkins, and Craig Ramsey serving as active pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers include Jerry Wells, Colleen Crowe, Eveline Brewer, Chad McPherson, John McPherson, David (Cora) McPherson, Mark McPherson, Donald McPherson, Pamela Schulz, Betty Faye Spencer, and Tom Hackney.
