“ Eliz we are very sorry for your loss, our thoughts and prayers are with you. When you hear the saying I'd give you the shirt off my back, that describes Keith perfectly. I will miss our chats and his silly jokes at the mailbox. I always enjoyed when he and Eli cruised over on the lawnmower to see what I was doing. I will miss my friend.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Keith's passing. We had been friends since the third grade and my sister and I have so many good memories of school and times with Keith's and John and others in our class. Their mothers were so much fun and so wonderful, too! Many blessings and prayers for comfort to his family.
