“ Kenny, you fought the hard fight despite a lot of medical issues. So many memories. We had a good team. You'll be missed. How in the world did you get so many women smothering you with affection? Say hi to Naomi Judd while you're there.

Kenny, your life here below left a big footprint, on everyone you met... from yourll laugh to ya big smile, to the great big hugs you gave, everyone will cherish them all. Kenny we all loved you, and will miss you like crazy..Kenny, you have gained your'll wings now and are walking in heaven with ya family.... We know you are happy, but you are forever loved and missed down here on earth. Especially in the courthouse and wherever else you left yourll footprints... we are saddened, but know you are in a far better place than us... yourll forever friends... fly high our friend... love and miss you, and when we look at the stars,at night we will know yourll up there shining sooo bright...

“ I am broken hearted. Kenny was the epitome of a kind soul & loving heart. I loved his quick wit and dry sense of humor. I can still hear his chuckle. He was a great employee & even greater friend.
