

Kenneth Michael Morton

September 22, 1952 - January 6, 2024

Kenneth (Kenny) Michael Morton passed away on January 6, 2024, after a long illness at UK Hospital. Kenny was born on Cane Creek in Stanton KY on September 22, 1952, to Paul and Vina King Morton. Kenny graduated from Vandalia Butler High School in Vandalia, OH. After graduating Kenny came back to Stanton, Kentucky where he spent most of his summers. Kenny would dedicate a large portion of his work career in the automotive parts and repair industry. Most notable, Kenny would spend most of that time at Napa Auto Parts in Stanton. Kenny would eventually make a new work home at the Powell County Bus Garage first as bus driver then as a bus mechanic. Kenny also kept a small home business as with ATV repair, Sudden Motion ATV. Kenny would retire and spent the majority of his retirement with his grandchildren and friends. Kenny loved spending time with family and friends, Kentucky ball games and cooking. Kenny was preceded in death by his father, Paul Morton. He was married to his wife, Teresa Townsend Morton for 42 years and resided in Clay City KY. He leaves behind a daughter Shona Morton Baisden of New Vienna, OH; two sons Ian (Bridget) Morton, of Stanton, KY and Steven Morton, Clay City, KY; 3 grandsons, Caleb and Caden Morton of New Vienna, OH, and Benjamin Burt of Stanton, KY; two granddaughters Kendall and Stella Morton of Stanton, KY; mother, Vina Morton; brothers, Kevin Morton and Leslie (Stephanie) Morton; and sister, Nennia (Curt) Seagraves.
