“ I Latasha was so proud of my brother. My brother was a gentle giant after he surpassed my height. I asked my mom for a brother because I already had two younger sisters. I was old enough to pack him everywhere, play with him, change his diapers. I was proud to finally have a brother. He is loved by so many people. He was a life long friend to his boys that grew up with him and played football with him. He always wanted to get married because family was everything to him. He wanted children. He wanted to finish college. Even with his sisters, there were times we needed him and he was there. The world lost a great human. His sons lost their father, they will never remember him because they are babies. I hope they learn how great he was and how much he loved them. There aren't now two gigantic holes in my heart. My best friend/sister The beautiful Melanie Joelle “Mel-Jo” Wasson and now my handsome baby brother Kevin Douglas “KWASS” Wasson. My life will never be the same without my best friends💕💕

“ I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. Kevin was very special to me he appeared in my life right after my son passed on and Kevin really helped me cope. He was young but had a old soul, seems like he knew exactly what to say to make me feel better. He was very caring and respectful.and when he smiled you couldn't help but smile to. I'm gonna miss him.
