“ This is one of my favorite photos of my sister in Christ. I look forward to seeing that smile, and an even bigger one on her face when we meet again in glory! What a wonderful example of Christian service she leaves with us for now. Jerry Smith, Pastor, Salem Baptist Church

“ This lady was such a wonderful soul. She would allow me to drive her vehicle to BCTC when she worked there and I was a student. So thankful for all of the support that she gave me, so I could be a nurse and raise my children. I love you so much. Oh until we meet again. Oh how I love you.

I will miss my friend, Letha, her sparkling eyes, her sweet caring spirit, the fried apple pies she made better than anyone else could (She brought them to me even when her hands ached with arthritis and it hurt her to make them.), the family history she helped me to dig up, the stories she told me, the clippings she mailed me from the Clay City Times. Letha had been married to Elmer Sexton only 19 years when he passed away. She told me how they drove to the McKinney Reunion in 1950 from Ohio, the first McKinney Reunion after they had married and every year after that until Elmer died. Letha was not one of those "blood is thicker than water" people. When she married Elmer Sexton, she became the true sister of all his siblings and she kept those relationships all of her life. I was blessed to be in that McKinney family into which she married. "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be." Yesterday was Letha's day of rejoicing. Praying for you in this time, Shelia and Wesley
