Levi Rogers, 81, Clay City formerly of Peru, Indiana, widower of Anna Marie Howard Rogers and Kathleen Faye Bellamy Rogers, went to be with the Lord, Monday, March 11, 2019 at his home with family by his side. He was born February 8, 1938 in Chop Chestnut to the late Simon Hezekiah and Betty J Meadows Rogers. He was the youngest brother of nine. He would sing and play the guitar with his friends and he especially loved to sing for the Lord. Levi was a hard worker and had several jobs in his lifetime. He was a former employee at Natural Bridge State Park and Leggitt & Platt while in Kentucky. He moved to Peru and worked at CR Metal and later retired from Bryan Steam in 2001. He was a proud member of the Boiler Makers Union.
