I remember Uncle Gale fondly as I remember some of the time we spent together as children and adults. I will never forget the time he hit me over the head with a baseball bat to kill a bee that had landed there; or the trips with Grandma Effie in her Ford in the fifties. Gale came to Florida to visit us in the 60's and we played a lot of cards. My most recent visits with him were when we met at the Funeral Home for my parents funerals (his brother and Sister in law). He came to my home only once when he and my father Dallas (Woody) were on a sightseeing trip in the western part of the country and I was living in Las Vegas. I will Miss him greatly! He was my Uncle and My Friend. My deep condolences to his Wife, Children and Grandchildren as well as My Uncle Bobby Arnold and Family of Van Buren, Indiana and My Aunt Nancy Moore in Kentucky.
