“ Margaret’s smile could change anyone’s mood immediately. She was a kind, generous person. When I first met Margaret thru my time at Life Adventure Camp and after, I knew she was a special person who would change my life forever and she did. She was always loving and no matter what the situation she stopped what she was doing and tended to the person who needed something. Her love of family and the Life Adventure Camp taught me how to be an adult. I have thought of her so often since I left Kentucky and will continue to remember her generous heart, her beautiful smile and her love of Tabitha. Thank you Margaret for teaching me that life is always an adventure.

“ Margaret Spencer will always be a special friend and a member of our family. No matter the hour (day or night) we always knew that when we knocked on her door or rang her phone that she would be there for us, ready to help in whatever ways she could! Margaret’s hospitality was legendary among all Life Adventure Camp staff and counselors. Her home was warm and inviting just like “home.” And her home-cooked meals always made us hungry to come back for more. When we called Margaret, it was often because we needed a favor or advice or help. But when Margaret called us, it was mostly to cheer up our day and to be sure we were still alive. After “Hello,” the next thing out of Margaret’s mouth was always, “Are you doing OK?” Margaret loved her pets and years ago we adopted a little brown furry pup that we named Molly. I think Margaret must have injected her own loving spirit into that pup before we brought her home, because Molly became the most loving and devoted pet we have ever owned. One thing we have tried to learn from Margaret is that no matter how busy things get, you can always make time for friends and family. Our Father God put Margaret Spencer here on this earth to show us how to be a little kinder to each other and how to love each other a little better. Thank you, God, for the friendship we shared. We will love Margaret forever. Amen.
