“ So sorry for your loss Kim. You have a lot of beautiful memories. May they bring you great peace as you go thru this. Praying for your healing. ♡ Beth & Mike, from Cincinnati. I lit a candle for Mark. Call if you ever just need someone to talk to. Especially in the middle of the night cause I'm up at 2 am. ;)

“ Sweet Kim,
I am so sorry for what you are going through today. I know the next few days will just be a dream. And telling you Mark is in a better place will not take all that sorry and loss you are feeling today away. But eventually you will get peace from that and knowing the Lord has his arms wrapped around him and has made him whole again. From the first day you introduced me to Mark I knew he was a very special person. That sideways smile and you saying he was a country boy? I knew right then he was a country boy who loved you with all his heart just from the way he would look at you and smile. What you wrote on Facebook about the life you and Mark had together here on earth for the short period of time you did is such a sweet reminder of what we all strive for. And you know you will have that again someday. You are in my heart and prayers sweet Kim.

“ The first time I met Kim was at our family reunion, I thought she is so pretty and the sweetest personality and when I went back to work, I ran into Mark I told him I was impressed he's got a keeper and he said she's mean too, I said she has to be to put with you, he laughed so hard, you will be missed, love you big brother

“ The memories are my son and husband worked with Mark at Trane Co. They would come in and tell something funny Mark had done and talk about what a good person he was. We are sorry for the loss, and our prayers are with the family.
