“ I am so sorry to read of Nora's passing. I never had the chance to meet her but as a genealogist in the family, I had much information about her and Roy. Roy was my dad's first cousin.

“ My Grandma was very special to me, she was a very strong woman, she was the toughest woman I have ever known, she would tell you what she thought too. I know at times a lot of us grand kids probably didn't understand but as time passed I realized it was out of love for us that she would tell us what she thought. I'm sure granny is in heaven now with grandpa and she is probably letting God know that she is not going to take any crap from anyone there ha ha. I wish I could be half as tough as she was, she will be missed tremendously.

“ Aunt Nora and Uncle Roy were always my favorites on Mamaw's side. You could tell they were there as soon as you pulled up the driveway because of the laughter spilling from the house. Whether it was a meal, a game of rummy or just telling stories, Aunt Nora always made it fun. And her laugh will never be forgotten. I love you Aunt Nora! Christy Wilson Farris
