“ Once several years ago when Paul was in the station I went down one summer evening to buy gas for the lawn mowers. Filled up the cans at the self serve pump and absent -mindedly and in a hurry to get home I forgot to go in and pay up'. Bout half way up the creek I remembered I hadnt paid for that gas . I expected any minute a cop would pull me over and I turned around and went back. Paul was changing oil in a car and he laughed at me for coming back . He said ." I knew you would remember but you could have paid later" So sorry for your loss keep those memories forever in your hearts. Love and prayers, Jenny and Gene Patrick..

Vickie, you know I love you just like my own sisters. My heart is heavy for you now. I know how much you loved your daddy & just how bad it hurts to lose a dad. I will certainly be praying for some sort of peace to come to you & your family during this difficult time & also for the days & months ahead. May you find peace in knowing you have so many friends & family who love you & also that your dad is not suffering anymore although it will not make you miss him any less. I love you.
