“ Aunt Phyllis was the best aunt ever. She was like a second mommy to me. Although my heart aches now, my heart was always full when I was around her. She was such a funny and loving person to everyone she met. I can't wait to be reunited with her already and see her smiling face. I bet she danced through the pearly gates. ❤️

“ Phyllis had my grandsons and oldest granddaughter at the Daycare when they were younger, I never saw her she didn't ask about them and my family. When my Dad was sick she showed so much concern for my family and I . Anytime I ran into she would tell me to tell all the family she loved them, I could always count on my first Christmas card of the year would be from her signed Love Phyllis!! I will miss this Sweet soul and her beautiful smile! Fly high Angel and I hope you are Dancing in the Sky, kiss my baby girl for me!! Love you bunches!!
