“ Rachel and I were Visiting Teaching partners for many years. She was my buddy, my friend, and just like one of my sisters. We visited several ladies in our church each month and loved and treasured them all. We took treats most months and her treats were always more healthy than the ones I made. We had several friends who went out for birthday lunches and temple trips together.. We'd take turns driving and always stopped at Schlotzsky's for lunch when we went to Crestwood to the Temple...

We all loved Rachel. And we all agreed she was the perfect southern lady, the only one we could truly call a lady in our group. She was fun-loving, generous and never had a bad word to say about anyone.. She made all of us better for having known her.. We will miss her until we get to see her again. She won't miss us now because she will be with Larry. He was a great guy and I know she missed him so much so I can't be too sad at her leaving us. But I will love her for eternity as one of my sisters.

“ Rachel was my special friend for many years. I worked with her and we continued our friendship many years after retirement. It was always a special visit when I went to her home. The smells of her amazing cooking was a delight in itself. She had a servant's heart and an example for us all to live by. I truly missed those visits after she sold her home and moved. My memories are ones I will cherish until my time to leave my earthly home. Then I pray to see my friend again. Her family are special to me also because they are part of Rachel. God Bless them and give them peace.
Love,
Sharon

“ We absolutely loved and adored our sweet Rachael. She was the perfect example of a southern lady. We were her visiting teachers and visited monthly. She always greeted us with a hug and a smile. She loved gardening and always sent us home with garden supplies. I will never forget her beautiful smile and her example as a true Christian. She would bear her testimony on fast Sunday, and express her great love for the Savior. We are so grateful to have known this gentle and caring Lady. I know she is resting in the arms of our loving Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ. She and Larry are together again.
God bless and comfort you all.
Our prayers and love to you all.
