“ Roger was the kindest most gentle man I have ever known. I am honored to have had the pleasure of spending so much time with him doing so many different things over many years, Roger loved German Shepherd Dogs, Archery and Automobiles. He beamed when he talked about all of his family in Kentucky and loved being Grandpa.

For such a skinny man he will leave a big hole in many lives.

“ One of the best times was building Rodgers deck. He was so funny. Put a drill bit through my finger. The pain was killer. But at lunch that day we were figuring materials and he said"let me get the computer" Lmao....me and Eric were crying we were laughing so hard. The computer was a calculator.! Lol
What a great man he was. And such a hard worker. RIP big guy.
See ya some day in the future
